

Lynn Kriengkrairut & Logan Giulietti-Schmitt

Born: Oct. 4, 1988 - Perth Amboy, N.J.
Aug 16, 1985 - Chicago, Ill.

JUNIOR ICE DANCING

Height: 5'4" / 5'10"

School: n.a. / Eastern Michigan University

Home Club: All Year FSC / Stars FSC of Texas

Hometown: Bismarck, N.D. / Oak Park, Ill.

Training Town: Ann Arbor, Mich.

Coaches: Iaroslava Netchaeva & Iouri Tchesnitchenko

Choreographers: Iaroslava Netchaeva & Iouri Tchesnitchenko

Original Dance Music: "Primavera Portena" by Piazzolla

Free Dance Music: "Take the Lead" soundtrack

COMPETITIVE HISTORY

2007 Pacific Coast Sectional, Junior 1st

SKATING NOTES

- Kriengkrairut began skating at 6 because her parents signed her up
- Giulietti-Schmitt began skating at 3 because his older sister skated and he looked up to her

PERSONAL NOTES

KRIEN GKRAIRUT

- Was an AP scholar
- Plays golf, tennis, piano and alto saxophone
- Is working toward going to medical school in hopes of becoming a cardiothoracic surgeon
- Was diagnosed with a pulmonary sequestration at 15 and underwent a major surgery to remove the lower lobe of her right lung

GIULIETTI-SCHMITT

- Won the Phi Theta Kappa scholarship to Eastern Michigan University
- Enjoys music, reading, art and poetry
- Says his most important goal outside of skating is to graduate college and go to graduate school