

Genevieve Deutch & Alexander Lorello

Born: May 11, 1990 - Worcester, Mass. NOVICE ICE DANCING
Nov. 25, 1987 - Wheaton, Ill.

Height: 5'5" / 6'0"

Home Club: University of Delaware FSC / University of Delaware FSC

Hometown: Newark, Del. / Gambrills, Md.

Training Town: Newark, Del.

Coaches: Gennadiy Karponosov, Karen Ludington & Natalia Linichuk

Choreographers: Natalia Linichuk & Vitali Popkov

Free Dance Music: "Land and Freedom" (Terra e Liberta) by Amici Forever

COMPETITIVE HISTORY

| | | | |
|--|-----|---|------|
| 2007 Eastern Sectional, Novice. | 4th | 2006 State Farm U.S. Championships, Novice. | 11th |
| 2007 South Atlantic Regional, Novice | 3rd | 2006 Pacific Coast Sectional, Novice | 3rd |
| 2006 North American Challenge Skate, Novice. | 6th | | |

SKATING NOTES

- Deutch began skating at 4: "I don't remember, but I'm assuming that I liked it"
- Lorello began skating at 8 because he was home schooled and needed physical activity that wouldn't set off his asthma
- He and his younger brother, Ian, both skate and both have competed in fencing at the national level; Ian is also competing in novice ice dancing at these U.S. Championships

PERSONAL NOTES

DEUTCH

- Likes reading, shopping, hanging out with friends, being random, pirates and tomatoes
- Would like her eventual profession to have an impact on society — she's currently considering politics
- Cites moving away from her father to train as the hardest part of her skating career

LORELLO

- Hobbies include math, physics, Shakespeare, epee fencing, playing cello and computers
- Plans to go to college and graduate school, and possibly post-grad work in math or physics