SKATING NOTES

- Gleason started skating at age 2 because her mom (Suna Murray) was a figure skating coach and Olympian; she went to the 1972 games in Sapporo, Japan, and placed 12th in ladies
- Gleason won the Eastern Sectional as a senior lady exactly 25 years after her mother did the same feat
- Finished fifth in novice pairs at the 2004 U.S. Championships; was also the 2003 U.S. intermediate pairs champion and the 2002 U.S. juvenile pairs champion

PERSONAL NOTES

- Is a member of Community Service Board and AIDS Action Committee at Noble and Greenough School
- Volunteers at Tufts New England Medical Center during the Summer
- Was a member of the Mathcounts team, which won first place in Allegheny County in 2004
- Loves being with friends and family
- Wants to graduate from a good college and graduate school
